General Terms and Conditions

Registration: Confirmation: Cancellation

Confirmation of registration is subject to payment of the registration fee to be due at the moment of registration. Registration deadline is April 28th, 2014. For payments/registrations coming in after this point in time, confirmation will be handed out on site in our conference office. To become valid, reservations have to be accompanied by the debit advice or credit card for the total amount due. In case of cancellation of participation until March 18th, 2014, 50% of the registration will be reimbursed. No further reimbursement will be made after this point in time unless you name us a person to replace yourself, who will take over your complete reservation. In those cases documents will be charged with a handling fee of EUR 20,- .

Should you have special wishes regarding billing specifications, please let us know when you are making your registration. Any later rewriting of invoices will be charged with a handling fee of EUR 20,-.

Prices are based on current rates of the respective service providers as well as on present VAT rates. It is hereby expressly noted that prices may be subject to alterations which are beyond our sphere of influence.

Legal basis

The conference organizer is bsh medical communications GmbH. Third parties entering into the agreement will be liable together with the participant towards the organizer as joint debtors for the invoice amount and for rebooking charges.

The right to program changes is expressly reserved. These may be no reason for cancellation of registrations. Registration fees are being collected by bsh medical communications GmbH.

The General Terms given above form the basis for registration. Oral agreements remain non-committal unless being confirmed in written form.
