Travel must be organized in a price-conscious manner in terms of the congress budget.

The costs for accommodation will only be covered if booked through the congress organization in the speakers' hotels.

- Board members do not receive travel expenses unless they are active in the scientific program as a speaker.
- Board members who are at the convention at the general membership meetings/board meetings and who do not have an assignment at the convention must register as normal with a fee.
- Reviewers of abstracts will not be reimbursed.
